

Delivering the best crypto trading experience in the world

Finance and Operations Consultant/ Senior Consultant (Full Remote)

Mission

At Atani, we help traders navigate the crypto ecosystem. Atani provides an advanced platform for end-to-end crypto trading and tax management to users in 100+ countries. We enable portfolio monitoring, market analysis, trade execution and tax reporting for 1,500+ cryptocurrencies across 20+ of the major global crypto exchanges (Binance, Kraken, Coinbase Pro, Huobi, Bitfinex, Bitstamp, KuCoin, Bittrex, bitFlyer, Poloniex, OKEx, Gemini and more).

In a nutshell

To massively scale the growth of Atani, we are looking for a passionate and hands-on individual to take ownership of multiple functions and projects across the areas of Finance and Operations. This role involves both strategic planning and execution and will give you the opportunity to wear and switch between multiple hats and learn something new every day in the most exciting industry of our day.

What you will do

- Work closely with the Head of Operations in ensuring the smooth running of Atani's day-to-day activities
- Build and optimize scalable processes to prepare the company for hyper growth
- Finance operations including management of crypto transactions or preparation of financial models and forecasts
- Work on key strategic projects in the areas of Analytics, Partnerships and HR, among others
- Identify key performance metrics and develop structure to track progress for multiple functions
- Become the go-to person for Operations' related queries and coordinate between several departments

Who you are

Must

- Fluent in English and Spanish
- 3-5 years of experience at a top-tier consulting firm, investment banking firm or fast-growing tech company
- Quick learner with strong analytical and problem-solving skills and excellent attention to detail
- Passion for doing whatever it takes to solve complex problems and build scalable processes
- Able to prepare bullet proof forecasts, financial models and presentations
- Comfort working in a high-growth, constantly changing environment
- Accountable with a strong sense of ownership and able to work in remote teams

Bonus points

- Prior experience in a hyper growth startup, especially crypto
- Active crypto power user: spot, futures, DeFi, etc.
- Have relevant experience in a similar role

Why Atani?
